Nancy and Bill Walters are both artists who live in Nelson County. Bill majored in Art at Virginia Tech and mastered in Sculpture at Pratt in NYC. Nancy taught art for six years and was Director of Recreation/Activities at Wintergreen for 29 years. They both participate in the Nelson Farmers Market, selling a variety of art and craft items, including hand turned and hand painted pens, quilled monograms and jewelry, birdhouses, bird feeders, painted bird portraits on feathers and greeting cards. Nancy continues to lead guided hikes, landscape painting tutorials and craft classes at Masanutten Resort near Harrisonburg, VA.
